

Goddard Park FS2
RE MUST HAVES

Key

Visits/Visitors

Activity sessions offered by St John's church, Cavendish Square.

- I am beginning to know that God is special to some people.
- I have listened to other children talking about God.
- I have heard some stories about God. (The creation story, the nativity story)
- I can talk about my special books and my special places.
- I can talk about someone else's special books and places.
- I know that I have to make my own choices in life.

Elizabeth

Goddard Park Y1
RE MUST HAVES

Key

Visits/Visitors

Activity sessions offered by St John's church, Cavendish Square.

Elizabeth

I am beginning to understand what a Christian is.
I can tell you something about Jesus. (story teller, miracle maker)
I have heard the Christian story of Easter.

I have visited a church.

I am beginning to understand that Christians believe in Jesus.

I am beginning to understand that some people believe different things. (Judaism)

I can say what I believe about things I can see and things I cannot see.

I know that I have to make my own choices in life.

I know the difference between right and wrong.

Rainbow hoop

Joe

Goddard Park Y2
RE MUST HAVES

Key

Visits/Visitors

Activity sessions offered by St John's church, Cavendish Square.

I know the Bible is a special book for Christians.
I have heard stories from the Old and New Testament.
I know some stories about Jesus.
I can use character words to describe Jesus.
I am beginning to understand that Christians want to be like Jesus.
I have listened to a Christian explain why they want to be like Jesus.
I can say why Moses was a good leader.
I know the difference between right and wrong.

Elizabeth

Joe

Goddard Park Y3
RE MUST HAVES

Key

Visits/Visitors

Activity sessions offered by St John's church, Cavendish Square.

Elizabeth

I know about a Christian in my community.

I can give examples of how I care for others.

I can say how Jesus cared for others.

I can say how Christians in my community care for others.(eg. Street pastor)

I have visited a church in my community.

The living church

I know what a symbol is.

I can describe some Christian and Sikh symbols.

I know the difference between right and wrong.

I know the effect of actions on others when I am thinking about moral dilemmas.

Malkit

Goddard Park Y4
RE MUST HAVES

Key

Visits/Visitors

Activity sessions offered by St John's church, Cavendish Square.

I can say what the Bible means to me.

I am beginning to understand how important the Bible is to Christians.

I have seen art about Jesus and can use art to interpret my impressions of Jesus.

I understand why Jesus told parables.

I have visited a Gurdwara.

I can say how Sikhs care for others in their community.

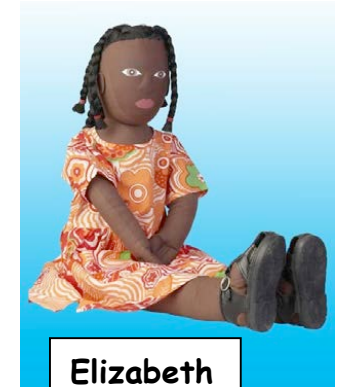

I can tell you some things about the Jewish faith.

Christmas unwrapped

I know the effect of actions on others when I am thinking about moral dilemmas.

Joe

Elizabeth

Malkit

Goddard Park Y5
RE MUST HAVES

Key

Visits/Visitors

Activity sessions offered by St John's church, Cavendish Square.

I can explain how Jesus is like me (eg. tempted, worried, caring, helpful)

I can explain the special qualities that Jesus had that set him apart from most people.

I have reflected on some Christian beliefs

- God made the world and God made us to look after it
- Christians want to take care of the world.
- Christians want to be like Jesus and take care of the people in it.

I have reflected on

- Responsibilities I have for taking care of the world.
- Who I admire as a role model.

I can explain how shared beliefs about what is right and wrong affect people's behaviour.

I have visited a Mosque

I know the origin of the Qu'ran and why it is important to Muslims. I can tell/draw/write about the 5 Pillars of Islam.

Easter Cracked Open

JP-S Jan 2013

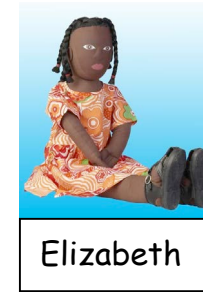

Goddard Park Y6
RE MUST HAVES

Key

Visits/Visitors

Activity sessions offered by St John's church, Cavendish Square.

I can identify the importance of murtis (statues) of the Hindu gods/goddesses to Hindus and say how they show the different characteristics of God.

I can make links between the Last Supper and Jesus' death and the Communion Service.

I can describe what happened to the Church at Pentecost.

I have helped to create a piece of art/music/dance inspired by the Pentecost story.

I have used the story/ies 'I am David/The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe' to reflect on

- The Christian belief that God hears prayers
- The Christian attitude of trust in God.
- The Christian belief in Jesus' death as a sacrifice for all people.

I can show that I understand that personal experiences and feelings can influence my attitudes and actions to prayer, trust and sacrifice.

I have thought about how my life can be seen as a journey.

I can describe a pilgrimage. Religious journey to a Holy Place.

