

Goddard Park

Community Primary School

An Integrated Children's Centre

Headteacher: Mike Welsh

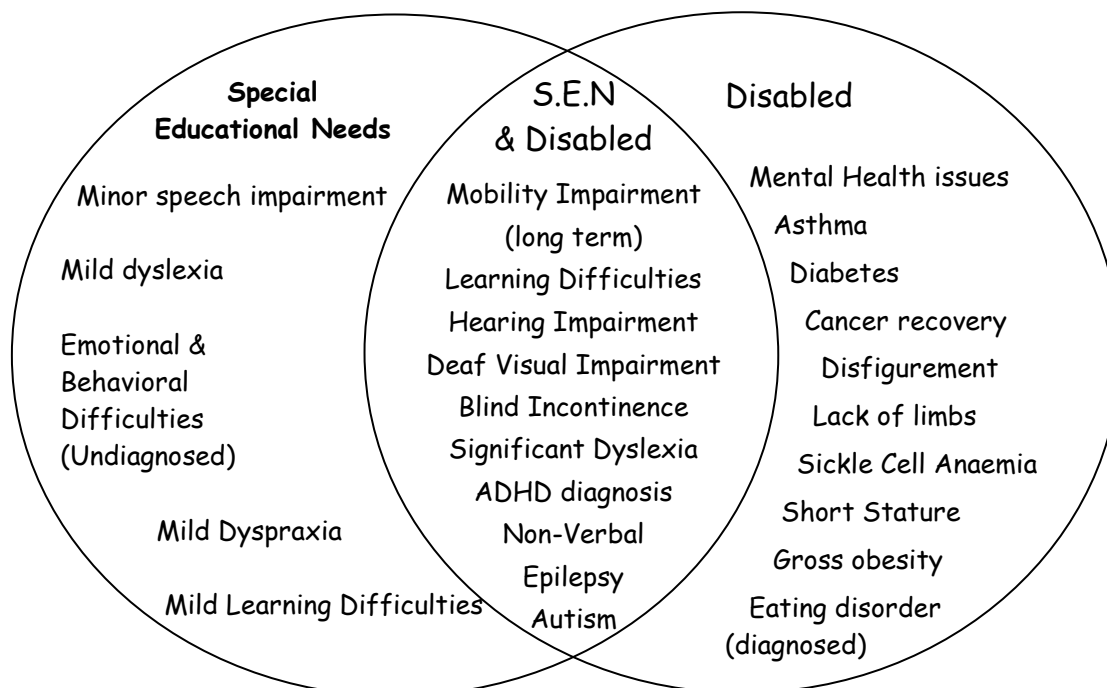

Everybody learns, everybody cares

Disability Equality at Goddard Park Community Primary School

At Goddard Park Community Primary School, we are committed to ensuring equality of education and opportunity for disabled pupils, staff and all those receiving services from the school. We aim to develop a culture of inclusion and diversity in which people feel free to disclose their disability and to participate fully in school life. The achievement of disabled pupils and students will be monitored and we will use this data to raise standards and ensure inclusive teaching. We will make reasonable adjustments to make sure that the school environment is as accessible as possible. At Goddard Park Community Primary School, we believe that diversity is a strength, which should be respected and celebrated by all those who learn, teach and visit here.

When is a person disabled?

A person has a disability if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities;

Please let us know if you would like any further information or have any feedback regarding the information overleaf